FOREWORD

To the Class of 1901:

It so happens that the members of your class who elected Philosophy or Education during their Senior Year were among the last groups which it was my privilege to teach before being invited to assume the executive direction of the University's work and policies. Those fortunate and happy days now seem far away, but my interest in the subject matter of our studies together, my confidence in their importance, and my satisfaction with their influence, have only increased with the passing years.

You, gentlemen, have climbed a measurable distance up the steps of the ladder of the practical life of men. You have carried your college training, your college associations, and your college inspiration into and through the years that now number a quarter century. It is my confident belief that the ties of sentiment and of dependence which bind you to Alma Mater are as close as ever, if not closer, and that you will never cease to feel for her the regard and affection which the child justly has for her who nurtures him in his early years of dependence and quick development. To each and every member of the class I offer hearty greeting and welcome back to Morningside for an appropriate celebration of this anniversary in your lives.

Faithfully yours,

April 26, 1926

Nicholas Murray Butler

GREETINGS

To the Class of 1901:

Whether, then, would you rather have this strength of body, or Pythagoras's strength of intellect, bestowed upon you? In a word, enjoy that blessing while you have it: when it is gone, do not lament it; unless, indeed, young men ought to lament the loss of boyhood, and those a little advanced in age the loss of adolescence. There is a definite career in life, and one way of nature, and that a simple one; and to every part of life its own peculiar period has been assigned: so that both the feebleness of boys, and the high spirit of young men, and the steadiness of now fixed manhood, and the maturity of old age, have something natural, which ought to be enjoyed in their own time. * * * We must make a stand against old age, and its faults must be atoned for by activity. * * * Regard must be paid to health; moderate exercise must be adopted; so much of meat and drink must be taken, that the strength may be recruited, not oppressed. Nor, indeed, must the body alone be supported, but the mind and the soul much more; for these also, unless you drop oil on them as on a lamp, are extinguished by old age. And our bodies, indeed, by weariness and exercise, become oppressed; but our minds are rendered buoyant by exercise. * * * For on this condition is old age honored—if it maintains itself, if it keeps up its own right, if it is subservient to no one, if even to its last breath it exercises control over its dependents. For, as I like a young man in whom there is something of the old, so I like an old man in whom there is something of the young; and he who follows this maxim, in body will possibly be an old man, but he will never be an old man in mind.

MARCUS TULLIUS CICERO.

GEORGE B. BERNHEIM

GEORGE B. BERNHEIM

Manufacturer of Fancy Leathers

Business Address—300 Ferry St., Hoboken, N. J.

Residence—148 West 86th St., New York, N. Y.

After graduation I traveled in Europe for a while to recover from the strain of the final examinations. I stayed about four months in England, where I tried to find out something about the leather industry.

In January 1902 I started with R. Neumann & Company, manufacturers of fancy leather in Hoboken, N. J., and worked there in many different capacities until I arrived at the position of "boss", which I hope to maintain until a better man for the job shows up. I married in 1904. My wife is a physician and we have three boys, aged twenty, eighteen and fifteen respectively. The eldest was graduated from Harvard and is now studying biological chemistry at Kings College, Cambridge, England. The second one is at Princeton taking an academic course, while the youngest is still at prep school.

Aside from my regular work I have been an active member of the Tanners Council, the trade association of the tanners of the United States, and Chairman of its Research Laboratory Committee for a number of years. I am a Director in a number of corporations, a trustee of Mount Sinai Hospital, and Vice-President of the Harmonie Club of New York, a social organization. As to recreation, I have had to give up tennis and hand-ball, as they are a bit too strenuous, but I am still dubbing away at golf. I have kept in close contact with four or five of the men who graduated with me, and my association with them has been one of the pleasantest experiences of my life.

Except for the fact that I have grown older, stouter, balder and wiser, I do not believe that I have changed very much from the old days.

It seems quite enough to have to secretly admit to oneself that twenty-five years have passed since graduation, and then to have to indite this at large and for all in this anniversary book. Nevertheless, I am glad to have my nook here and will read all those other little histories with old-time, affectionate interest.

Well, my brief chronical is this: In the fall of 1901 I took a position with the Empire Trust Company, leaving there in 1902 for an extended trip abroad. In 1904 I entered Columbia Law School, preliminary to six years law practice. Since then I have managed an advertising department of the New York Evening Post and later sojourned with the General Electric Company for seven years as assistant to the credit manager. At the present time I am in the treasury department of the International Time Recording Company.

My house is at Harriman, Orange County, New York, and I have a daughter and son. I have married twice, losing my first wife in 1922.

SQUIRE FRED BROWNE

Teacher

Residence—7 Greenough Street, Cambridge, Mass.

Since leaving Columbia my work has been entirely in the teaching profession. After some years in public school work as superintendent I was appointed Associate Professor of Economics at the University of Idaho, with my work chiefly in statistics and sociology (1919-24). I spent a year at the University of Chicago in graduate work, getting my M.A. degree in 1918. I resigned my position at the University of Idaho in 1925 and spent the last year at Harvard University in the Graduate School of Education, receiving my Ed.M. last spring. I am now completing my work for the Doctor's degree, preparing my thesis this year.

It recalls a sad but pleasant memory to begin my history with the mention of a walking trip in Scotland in the Summer of 1901 with Edward Bedenger Mitchell, 1901 college. "Ted" was well beloved by those who knew him, and his death in military service in 1916 was a real loss to our class and a very personal one to me.

On my return from that summer abroad, I still consider myself lucky to have had a $5.00 per week job waiting for me in Vermilye & Company. In 1908 I started a small bond business of my own, which combined in 1914 in forming a New York Stock Exchange firm. In 1917 I became an active member on the floor where I am still chasing the elusive dollar with moderate success.

In private life, for fifteen years I was a New York bachelor, amusing myself riding to hounds, steeplechasing, being a national guardsman in Squadron "A", studying music, teaching sight singing in the People's Choral Union, singing in church and amateur performances, writing songs (most of them unpublished), playing squash with some success and golf with none whatsoever.

In the winter of 1916, while at Nassau, B. I., I met Wynanda K. Boardman, who became my wife seven months later. After a year in the city, we moved to Rye. Our first daughter Wynanda died early in her third year. We are now the proud parents of Peter, aged six, Andrew Derick, aged four, and Caroline Wynanda, aged two.

My post nuptial career has been as undistinguished as it has been happy. Of the normal pursuits of suburban life, golf and bridge claim a large share of my time. My real hobby, however, might well be described as "pottering" in music, wherein for me, the sporadic excursions into the field of choral directing, choir and dramatic coaching, composition and singing, unquestionably yield the richest fruits of spiritual pleasure and pain.

ROBERT DE BRUCE (Robert Bruce Pegram)

Residence—Bedford Hills, N. Y.

1901-1907 New York. Preparing boys for college. Teaching singing and giving song recitals.

1907-1915 Europe. Teaching singing in Berlin, Paris and London.

In 1908 (March) I adopted as a professional name the original Norman version of my first two names. In 1914 I wrote the music for an allegorical play by Helena de Kay and Robert de Bruce entitled "Psyche"—still unproduced—and set five of the Sonnets of Shakespeare as a Song Cycle called "Frankincense".

1915-1917 California. Teaching singing, concertizing, and occasionally composing.

1918 Chief clerk of the T. A. Gillespie Loading Co. Morgan, New Jersey.

1919-1920 During the spring toured the country with Walter Hampden in Hamlet. The winter was devoted to selling ancient Chinese paintings. In the spring of 1920 I was called to manage a campaign among the engineers of the United States to put Hoover into the primaries of the various states. June 1, 1920, I became assistant manager of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. In November I was made manager.

1920-1922 Manager of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, at which time I resigned to return to Europe. During my second year in Detroit I put on a season of plays. I also introduced in Detroit the idea of giving Symphony Orchestra concerts in the Public Schools.

1922-1923 Europe. Resting, writing screen plays and composing.

1924 America. In management again.

1925 Out of it again—a sadder, a wiser and a happier man!

1926 Hoping that Maude Adams will buy a Hindu screen-play of mine which she has under consideration and which she says she will film in India if she does "Kim" there. Contemplating going to India to watch her do it.

Attorney and Counsellor-at-Law

Business Address—375 Fulton St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Residence—246 14th Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

1903 Master of Arts, Columbia.

1906 LL.B., New York Law School.

1919 Appointed United States Commissioner, Eastern District of New York.

1923 Reappointed.

The practice of the legal profession enabled me to keep five of my children at college until graduation—three at Barnard and two at Columbia. My oldest son commenced a course in a technical school from which he voluntarily withdrew. Four of our children are happily married, my wife and myself being affectionately dignified as grandparents by their eight children.

In my faith in the Bible revelation—that “the Lord God is a sun and shield: Jehovah will give grace and glory: no good thing will He withhold from them that walk uprightly,”—I am still traveling to the land that is fairer than day where, through the merit and mediation of the Lord Jesus Christ, I hope to renew fellowship “wi’ a’ the guid anes comin’ there aifter servin’ their generation weel wha yince were ca’ed the Naughty Anes o’ Columbia.”

LEO S. GREENBAUM

Podiatrist

Residence—972 Lexington Ave., New York, N. Y.

For a while after graduation I was in the building line and was caught in the jam of 1907. After that could find nothing worthwhile in engineering. In 1914 took up the study of Podiatry, specializing in Orthopedics and find this profession more profitable where my knowledge of mechanics has been and is a factor in my success in relieving distress and pain and very often making it possible for the patient to resume his or her vocation. Married twenty-three years. Have no children. Have just taken up the hobby of motor boating.

HANS OLAF HANSON

HANS OLAF HANSON

Accountant

Residence—2730 Ditmars Boulevard, Corona, N. Y.

Single. Have been living for the past twenty-two years more or less as a recluse in the suburb of East Elmhurst on the shore of Flushing Bay, Long Island. In the beginning it was a rustic and wild suburb, but recently, it has become as tame as any of them, and so densely populated that being a recluse there is now somewhat difficult. At least it would be for an ordinary person, but for me, fortunately, it is still easy for the reason that I have in the course of the years become almost totally deaf, and am therefore relieved of all ordinary social obligations.

During working hours I have been for the same twenty-two years with the Accounting Department of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, but my spare time is spent as far as possible in the tall timber, wherever there is any to be found. For this purpose I purchased some time ago, in conjunction with my brother, a large woodland farm or camp-site in the Green Mountains of Vermont, where I spend all my vacations, and when I can retire from business I expect to go there to become a recluse for good for the rest of my days.

My hobby naturally consists in roaming the woods and observing the wild life, plant and animal, which I find there. I have done something in the endeavor to implant in the younger generation a love for the rapidly disappearing wilderness and a desire for its conservation by taking up the work of a scoutmaster, which avocation I have been following for the past eight years.

Residence—Campbell Court Hotel, Portland, Ore.

A steady course in the profession I like so well—electrical engineering. This made my 25 years a period of hard work and close application to problems requiring continuous attention. I am sorry I cannot inform at great length about when I was married, my luck in winning a fine girl for wife and the happiness that followed ever after. Travel and unending work did not give me a chance to get married—I am single, which is a cause for regret. Since graduation I spent three and a half years in General Electric Company, Schenectady, N. Y. Fourteen and a half years as Assistant Engineer to F. O. Blackwell in Pearson Engineering Corporation and Viele, Blackwell & Buck. Five years as Technical Assistant to Purchasing Agent of Anaconda Copper Mining Company. Then two years on electrical problems connected with electric logging and electrical apparatus for Longview, West Mill of Long Bell Lumber Company.

Residence—Stamford, Conn.

Married January 1, 1908 to Heloise Davison. Children—Alice Margaret, seventeen; Walter James Jr., fifteen, and John Robert, who died when nine. One adopted son, Donald Murray, two years old.

In 1908, with my wife, I went abroad for two years for my graduate medical work in diseases of the skin. We lived in Switzerland, Germany, France, Austria and England. Upon our return I became established in practice in New York and associated with various hospitals and medical teaching institutions. I was instructor in skin diseases at Cornell, Associate Professor at the New York Post Graduate Medical School, and am now instructor in a special branch of dermatology at Columbia. During the war I served as Captain in the Medical Corps, and shortly after my discharge was commissioned as Major in the Reserve Corps. My patriotism was forced to expend itself at the Base Hospital at Camp Meade, and at the Walter Reede Hospital near Washington.

Author of about fifty articles on themes pertaining to my specialty, together with one text book.

I was elected a member both of the American Dermatological Association and the New York Dermatological Society. In the latter, as well as in my special section of the American Medical Association, I served as secretary and chairman, and in my section of the New York Academy of Medicine I served as secretary. I am also a member of the various other medical societies, general and special, to which a physician belongs.

Mining Engineer and Farmer

Residence—"The Monastery" P. O. Marquard, Orange Free State, South Africa

After I graduated as E.M. in Columbia University I was mine supervisor in Ontario, Canada, for about a year, when I returned to South Africa after hostilities ceased here.

I started as mine sampler on the Crown Reef Mine, Johannesburg, and soon worked up to assistant surveyor. My next appointment was Head Surveyor at Nigel Mine near Heidelberg. Five years after I was appointed head surveyor of the Simmer East Mine, Germiston. This mine was then down 6,000 feet. At that time I had already worked over twelve years underground, and as these mines are very dusty I had to leave on account of a slight touch of silicosis.

My next move was to get plenty of fresh air, so I bought a farm—The Monastery—of 3,000 acres. On this farm there is a small diamond mine so I don't seem to be able to entirely break away from my profession. I have been on this farm for the last twelve years, doing very well. I am married and have two sons. I am sending you a photo taken about fifteen years ago. That was the last time I had one taken.

A few of the class—very few—know that I entered late and was only at Columbia the senior year. Therefore, it is that I have next to no fond recollection of Columbia College life. The older I get the more I regret this. One seldom makes intimate friendships later than his teens and his twenties, generally speaking; at least none that warm the heart and stir the imagination as he looks back. I always feel myself an intruder among a lot of fine fellows who average ten or twelve years younger than myself—though there is almost a malicious joy in noting, as the years go by, that one's classmates grow more physically like him as time rolls on! A few more years and we will be all alike!

Yes, I am happily married and have three children—two girls and a boy, all of them married and doing well. I am even a grandfather to four girls and a boy, three of them born within the past four months. One of them is also a grandchild, several degrees back, of George Washington's only sister, Betty Lewis. I have been wondering the past month whether or not this makes me a relative of the immortal George? We are, at least, grandfathers of cousins. What? Perhaps you can guess from this why I am running an orphanage!

WOOLSEY A. SHEPARD

Lawyer

Business Address—111 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

After graduation from College I completed my course in the Columbia Law School, graduating from there in 1903. I at once entered the employ of the law firm of Shepard & Houghton, of which my father was senior partner. I became a member of the firm about 1907 and have continued a member of the firm and its successors ever since. The present firm name is Ferris, Shepard, Joyce & McCoy.

Shortly after graduating from the Law School I took an active interest in politics and was a member of the Republican County Committee and of its Law Committee. I was also a delegate to and secretary of the State convention which nominated Charles E. Hughes for Governor and was the campaign manager of my Assembly District for a number of years.

After the death of my father in 1913 I quit politics and have since devoted my time to the practice of law. I am also an officer and director in several corporations.

In 1921 I married Edith C. Swezey. I have always resided in New York City.

I am a member of the Sons of the Revolution, the University Club and the Knollwood Country Club.

Manufacturer of Automobile Parts

*Business Address—The C. Spiro Manufacturing Co.,
Dobbs Ferry, N. Y.*

Residence—2 New York Ave., White Plains, N. Y.

After graduating from the Mechanical Engineering School in 1903 I accepted a flattering offer of $12 per week to lift machine parts off the floor of the Bement-Miles factory in Philadelphia (being competently assisted by a hand-crane). After four months of this I had lifted everything in sight, so I came back to New York and got a job with the Columbia Typewriter Company. In the fullness of time this flowered into a Superintendency, and in September 1911 I felt justified in persuading Miss Bert Samuel to marry me. Grace was born in 1912, and Virginia in 1915. Meanwhile some folks in Europe started a quarrel and had no time to buy any more typewriters; so I started making things for them to throw at each other, and when we got into the fight Uncle Sam wouldn't let me stop. Although sprung from three generations of New Yorkers I saw the error of my ways in 1914 and moved out to White Plains, where men are men and the other sexes in proportion. After the war was over, having become a sort of an inventor, I started to make parts of automobiles, and am still at it. Two years ago my third daughter, Rosemary, arrived; no, I'm not disappointed. All three of them are going to be engineers when they grow up. As to travels, I've been about Europe a bit but have never seen California or Florida, and don't believe half the natives say about them. I'm a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers, the Society of Automotive Engineers, the Republican Party, and a few odds and ends of Social organizations, and as a member of the Fireside Players of White Plains have told my lord about his waiting carriage on divers occasions. Literary productions have been confined mainly to Letters to the Editor, at which I am moderately prolific.

Executive

Business Address—25 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

Residence—Hempstead, Long Island

The year after I finished college I spent going around the world. After my return I was with Strong Sturgis Company, bankers and brokers, for a year or two and then went West for three years in mining in California, Nevada and New Mexico. After this I was in metal manufacturing in Nashville, Tenn., for five years. I returned to New York in 1913 and was with H. H. Oddie, Inc., building contractors, for two years. I went into the oil business in 1915, in which business I have been ever since, first in the Metropolitan Petroleum Company which had holdings in Mexico, then Director and Treasurer of the Invincible Oil Corporation and the Louisiana Oil Refining Corporation, which had their properties in the Mid-Continent Field of the United States, and for the past two years in a similar capacity with the Lago Petroleum Corporation with interests in Venezuela.

I went to the first Plattsburg Camp in 1915 and later to a war camp in 1917; I was commissioned captain and went to France with the 77th Division in April, 1918, returning with the Division in May 1919.

In August 1917 I married Anne Davis Richardson, of Nashville, Tenn.

For the past two years I have been Chairman of the Columbia Rowing Committee, Chairman of the Board of Stewards of the Intercollegiate Rowing Association, and member of the Board of Governors of Columbia University Club. Member of Knickerbocker, Meadow, Turf and Field, Delta Phi and City Midday Clubs.

Professor of Latin and Greek

Business Address—Washington University,

Residence—6041 Waterman Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

After graduation I spent three years in post-graduate work at Columbia, devoting my major effort to the study of Latin and Greek. When I left Columbia in 1904 to become Associate Professor of Latin and Greek at Peabody College for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn., I thought I should return for my Ph.D. degree much sooner than I actually did. This last degree had, however, to be postponed until 1916.

On August 6th, 1906, I married Lillian Lee Smith, of Columbia, Tenn. We have no children.

After teaching for seven years (1904-1911) at Peabody College for Teachers, I became Professor of Latin and Dean of the Middle Tennessee State Normal School, at Murfreesboro, from which position I moved to St. Louis in 1919, where I am now Professor of Latin and Greek at Washington University. In connection with my teaching career I should add that since 1919 I have had the pleasure of returning to Columbia each summer as a member of the teaching staff in Classics.

I am a member of the American Philological Association, the Archaeological Institute of America, and Vice-President for Missouri of the Classical Association of the Middle West and South.

My special studies in the Classics have concerned themselves with the folk-beliefs, superstition, magic, and religion of the Romans, regarding which I have published, besides numerous articles in Classical periodicals, "Studies in Magic from Latin Literature", Columbia University Press, 1916. In addition there is now ready for the press a translation of the "De Jure Praedae" of Grotius, prepared in conjunction with Professor Ralph Van Deman Magoffin for the Carnegie Institution, of Washington.

Business Address—Schenectady, N. Y.

Residence—1935 The Plaza, Schenectady, N. Y.

After leaving Columbia I came to Schenectady, entering the Testing Department of the General Electric Company. In September 1903 I was transferred to the Cincinnati district and spent four years there as a Construction Foreman. Then in May 1907 I entered the New York City office as a "cub" salesman, where I remained until May 1917 when I was transferred to Schenectady. Since then I have been Manager of Sales of the Chemical Section of the Industrial Department.

On the 26th of June, 1906, Miss Anne Louise Smith of Delaware, Ohio, changed her name to Mrs. L. S. Thurston, and still sticks to me. Two girls, now fourteen and eighteen years old, keep me busy most of the time. In-between-times I manage to get in some golf, and, in the Fall, some hunting with my four-footed pal—a thorobred pointer.

*Secretary, Treasurer and Manager,
The Albany Peach & Pecan Company
Business Address—Albany, Ga.
Residence—Albany, Ga.*

After graduating I spent two more years at the University and secured a Mechanical Engineer's degree. My first job was as draftsman at Colgate's soap factory in Jersey City. I spent ten years with a printing firm in various capacities, finally Secretary and Vice-President. I left them to become Sales Agent for the Regina Company of Rahway, N. J.

After six years of this work I became interested in pecan nuts. Karl Lorenz, our classmate, hearing me enthuse about these nuts became interested, and through him his father caught the bug. They persuaded me to get down to brass tacks with them and we all three came South, and after careful study decided to start The Albany Peach & Pecan Co. in the Albany, Ga. pecan district where "Money Grows on Trees". Not much has grown for us yet as the pecan proposition is a long-winded affair, but we have had a taste, and with this orchard proposition crops increase rapidly after the good bearing age has been reached. Between what our Company controls and what Karl Lorenz's father owns I have 2,850 acres in one body, but in three counties to wander over, and if any of you classmates want some good quail hunting during the winter come down and visit us.

Winifred Fritz became my wife in 1911, and four girls have come to us—Edith, Margaret, Ruth and Janet, the last two being twins. The prospects are that the "World's Pecan Center" will be our permanent home.

JAMES T. WILLIAMS, JR.

Editor, Boston American

Business Address—5 Winthrop Square, Boston, Mass.

Residence—992 Charles River, Cambridge, Mass.

I started newspaper work as a reporter on "The State", in Columbia, S. C. In January 1902 was Washington Correspondent of "The State", and in November of the same year joined the Washington Staff of the Associated Press, which I represented at the Navy Department and with the Diplomatic Corps. Helped to report the Republican and Democratic National Conventions of 1904 for the Associated Press, and also the Portsmouth Peace Conference in 1905. In March 1906 I became the Washington Correspondent of the Boston Evening Transcript, and in 1908 was given leave of absence to assist in the campaign for the nomination and election of Mr. Taft to the Presidency. In 1909 President Taft appointed me United States Civil Service Commissioner but soon thereafter I resigned on account of illness, and for two years, beginning with 1910, was Editor of the Tucson (Arizona) Citizen, which led the fight for statehood for what was then the Territory of Arizona. Elected Delegate-at-Large from Arizona to the Republican National Convention of 1912. Have taken an active part in the development of the American Society of Newspaper Editors from its foundation, and was the Society's First Regional Governor for New England, and later Chairman of its Committee on Ethical Standards. Editor-in-Chief of the Boston Evening Transcript from November 1912 to February 1925. Editor, Boston Evening American since March 1925. Appointed by President Coolidge a member of the Board of Visitors to the United States Naval Academy for the year 1924. Awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Civil Law by the University of the South in 1921. Knight of the Order of Leopold (Belgium) 1920. Commander, Order of the Crown of Italy 1920.

EDWARD B. BRUCE

Retired

Residence—Anticoli Corrado, Provincia di Roma, Italy

[[Bruce writes: "I haven't done anything that could be of interest to any one." A friend of his thinks differently and supplied the Editors with the following data.]]

After graduation he practiced for a time in New York, then went to the Philippines where he became a Judge of the Surrogate's Court. He married Miss Margaret Stow of San Francisco. After a few years he gave up his profession and went to China and engaged in exporting and importing. He became deeply interested in China's art, and this interest led him to attempt painting an occasional picture. In 1922 he and Mrs. Bruce went abroad, and while traveling in Italy he showed the artist Maurice Sterne some of his work. As a result of that meeting he decided to give up his business career and devote himself to painting. He and his wife moved to a little village near Rome, where he began his studies under Sterne. A year later he sent for exhibition fifty paintings to Scott & Fowles. The result was most successful and all the pictures were sold. Last winter he sent over a few more pictures to the same gallery. His last work shows remarkable growth and development, and great promise for the future.

PAUL FULLER, JR.

Lawyer

Business Address—2 Rector Street, New York, N. Y.

I graduated from the New York Law School in 1901.

In 1902 I joined the firm of Coudert Brothers, of which I am still a member.

I have been more or less interested in problems of Public and Private International Law.

Since 1916 I have represented the French Government in most of its external financial transactions. My firm represented the British Government during the War, and also represented the Russian and Italian Governments.

I was, for a time, the Chairman of the Foreign Trade Committee of the Merchants Association, and contributed modestly to various technical journals and daily newspapers on the subject of International trade and finance.

In 1915 I was appointed by President Wilson as United States Commissioner to Haiti with the rank of Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary (really Minister ad interim).

During the War I organized, and was Director of, the Bureau of War Trade Intelligence and also, for a time, of the Enemy Trade Bureau.

I was also a member of the Censorship Board from its organization until after the Armistice.

Since 1920 I have represented The Principality of Monaco in this country as Consul-General of Monaco at New York.

For the past four years I have been President of Pathe Exchange, Inc., a company of which I had been Counsel for many years.

I am a member of the New York State Bar, County Bar Association, Bar Association of the City of New York, the American Academy of Political and Social Science, American Society of International Law, etc.

Member of the Century, Union Down Town, Metropolitan (of Washington, D. C.), Rockaway Hunting, Turf & Field Club and the Fraternity of Delta Psi.

I have the following decorations: Chevalier de la Legion d'Honneur (France) and Chevalier de l'Ordre de St. Charles (Monaco).

During the years 1912 to 1925 I made four trips to South America, a number to Cuba, and one to the Far East. At present I am in charge here of all export correspondence, and also do whatever engineering work is required. Publications: Various articles on stresses in and uses of wire rope, in technical papers.

JOHN REGINALD VAN HORNE

Engineer and Contractor

Business Address—53 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Ill.

Married April 4, 1907, to Kate J. Massie of St. Louis, Mo., and widowed at Chicago, Ill., March 5, 1922. No children.

Immediately after graduation started work as a Draftsman with American Stoker Company, New York, manufacturers of Underfeed Stokers. Was soon made assistant to Chief Engineer, but they disbanded in April 1903. Secured work at once with Westinghouse Church Kerr & Company of New York, who sent me to St. Louis, Mo. on railroad reconstruction and remodeling work for the Terminal Railroad Association, and the World's Fair. Returned to New York in 1904, and after two months office work on reports, etc., was associated with Keasby & Matison on Insulation work. Then with the Engineer Company of New York on testing and operating of power plants. Contracted typhoid fever on this work and laid off for three months. Then returned to St. Louis, Mo., 1905, and established courses in Mechanical, Electrical and Civil Engineering at Christian Brothers College in St. Louis, remaining with them for three years during the development of the teaching force. Also in 1905 I became associated with Boland in a partnership for the purpose of building power plants, manufacturing buildings, etc. In 1914 went to Chicago for the purpose of establishing another office after building up a good strong organization in St. Louis. The Chicago office prospered immediately, but as the finances were handled in St. Louis, and as I was not able to get a settlement, went in business alone in 1921, with consistent progress in contracting work.

Am a member of the following organizations: Theta Xi Fraternity; an Honorary member of three chapters, and a life member of the Grand Lodge, A. F. & A. M.; Columbia Club; Lake Shore Athletic Club; Midland Club; Furniture Club; Collegiate Club; Town & Country Club; and our Alma Mater Alumni Association.
